

What's On

2008

The Way of a Thousand Arrows. An Australian family's journey through the Camino de Santiago
By Jonathan Drane

A Sydney family with three teenaged children walk 450 kms in only 22 days of the Camino, an ancient pilgrim path in northern Spain. A physical, emotional and historical journey they all share and with others met on the way.

◀ Date

Wednesday 28 May 2008

◀ Time

6.30pm

◀ Place

Mona Vale Library
1 Park Street, Mona
Vale

◀ Cost of Event

Adults $7.50
Friends/Concession $5.50
(passes be shown)

◀ Bookings

Essential:
Phone 9970 1600

Jonathan Drane is a non-fiction writer and poet, concentrating on subjects such as manhood and his experiences as a father, son and husband. His works include "The Curlew Song", "The Viking Ship", "The Invisible Man, all published on www.jondrane.net. "Thousand Arrows" won the Messenger Marketing Award at the 9th Annual Australian Authors and Publisher's Bookshow, Nov. 2007.